

2022 Hall of Fame Celebration at Skydive DeLand

Photos by Randy Forbes

Hall of Fame Banquet at the Daytona Beach Hilton

At age 84, Maria Yagella is the oldest woman to ever make a solo skydive

Fun jumps, team practice and the 10-way competition kept jumpers in the air all three days

Keith Bergeron showing how quality accuracy is done

Hall of Fame Member '21 Ian Bobo

Travis Flint is presented with the Trustees' Award by Board President/CEO Curt Curtis

Chuck Akers and Bill Booth smile for the camera!

Some amazingly talented accuracy jumpers were a crowd favorite

Pioneers of Excellence recipients Donna Wardean-Dann, Ray Cottingham, Sam Alexander and Jerry Bird

Kim Knor, HOF '13, gets a big hug from development director Jim McCormick

Ambassadors Paul and Nancy Fayard enjoying the VIP Breakfast

HOF Member '18 Ray Cottingham with his beautiful wife, Joan

HOF Member '20 Bruno Brokken

World Team 2006 — 400-Way Largest Formation World Record honored with the Path of Excellence Award

Museum Ambassadors Elizabeth Foster and Jan Works share a laugh!

HOF Emcee and Museum Ambassador Sherry Butcher

Nick Nickolich, Skydive DeLand owner Bob Hallett, and Mike McGowan, HOF '20

Museum Administrator Nancy (Kemble) Wilhelm and board trustee and Events Committee chair Pat Thomas

James "Guido" Davis and Museum Ambassador Melanie Conatser are all smiles!

Yasuhiro Kubo, HOF '15, and his daughter, Kaena

Matt Davidson, current 8-way world champion

Museum Ambassador Marshall Madden is giving the thumbs up!

Folks from the UK travelled "across the pond" to represent HOF Inductee Dave Waterman!

Bobbie Worth and board trustee Marylou Laughlin

Friends old and new took to the skies together

HOF Inductee Eliana Rodriguez is welcomed into the HOF by her husband, and HOF '12 Member, Craig Girard!